Dear Mr. White:

It is certainly pleasing and gratifying to know that the International Association of Chiefs of Police will have the honor and pleasure of your presence as a featured speaker at the 61st Annual Conference, in the Roosevelt Hotel, New Orleans, Louisiana in the morning of Monday, September 27, 1954.

The Monday morning program has been traditionally reserved for speakers of the most distinguished category, and has been the inspirational part of the general presentation. Among the speakers are: Governor Robert Kennon of Louisiana, Governor Hugh Gregg of New Hampshire, Mayor Morrison of New Orleans, Hon. Warren Olney, III, Assistant Attorney General, and a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The Monday afternoon session will feature "Police Problems in the Atomic Age," and the Tuesday program, "Pinpointing the Crime Problem." Wednesday - a full day on Traffic. This will give you a general idea of the themes for development, and may guide you in your choice of a subject. [We will be pleased to receive from you, at your earliest convenience, the title you wish to appear on the program for your presentation.] Your talk has been scheduled for 11:30 a. m. on the above date, Monday, September 27th.
